

National Health Care and Sport Science Referral Network

Updated April 22, 2011

USA Gymnastics National Health Care Referral Network is comprised of health care practitioners with proven experience working with athletes. These professionals have met the criteria in their field set by the National Sport Science and Health Care Board of Consultants and expressed an interest in partnering with local gymnastics programs to provide health care services for athletes.*

The following list includes individuals from the fields of Nutrition, Sport Psychology Consultant, Clinical Psychology, Non-Surgical Sports Medicine, Athletic Training, Sport Science, Psychiatry, Chiropractors, Physical Therapy, and Orthopedic Surgery. There is also a separate category of former gymnasts in various health care professions.

Anyone interested in knowing more about the National Health Care Referral Network or the Athlete Wellness Program can contact Kathy Kelly, Vice President of Program, 317-829-5626.
