Host agrees to not make any changes to the approved Event budget regarding both projected revenues as well as estimated expenses without the approval of USAG. USAG will not unreasonably withhold its approval and, in the event of disapproval, will provide the Host with the reason for its disapproval. Host also recognizes USAG’s interest and right to have a working knowledge of the Event budget. Host respects that USAG’s experience in the event business is a valuable resource and agrees to seek USAG’s guidance and advice where appropriate.

III. Intellectual Property

A. USAG retains all ownership rights, title and interest in and to all of its Intellectual Property. “Intellectual Property” means intellectual property, confidential information and proprietary information, in any and all media, including digital media, and in any jurisdiction, including, without limitation, all (a) patents and patent applications (including all reissues, continuations, continuations-in-part, revisions, extensions and reexaminations thereof) and patent disclosures and inventions (whether or not patentable and whether or not reduced to practice); (b) trademarks, service marks, designs, logos, trade dress, trade names, internet domain names, assumed names and corporate names, in each case, whether or not registered, together with all goodwill associated therewith; (c) published and unpublished works of authorship, whether copyrightable or not, including all applications, extensions and renewals for any of the items listed in clauses
(b) and (c); trade secrets; (f) websites and contents thereof; (g) computer programs, including operating systems, applications, routines, interfaces, and algorithms, whether in source code or object code form; (h) databases and the information contained therein; and (i) all proprietary rights relating to or embodied in any of the foregoing, including without limitation, all causes of action, damages and remedies related thereto. Host shall not use USAG’s Intellecution Property for any purpose without the express prior written consent of USAG.

B. Host agrees that prior to the use of any Intellectual Property in any form, it will submit to USAG for approval two (2) copies of the text and graphics of the proposed use of the Intellectual Property and a description of the proposed medium in which the Intellectual Property will be used. USA Gymnastics will not unreasonably withhold its approval, and in the event of disapproval, will provide the Host with a reason and suggest the changes in the proposed content and usage.

C. Included among the Intellectual Property is the Event name: "[Partner’s name] [YEAR] Men’s Development Program East or West Championships." USAG reserves the right to revise the name to refer to title or presenting sponsorship or partnership of the Event. No name other than that may be used by the Host to advertise, promote, or identify the Event.

D. Host shall have the right to assist in the design of the official Event logo.

IV. Sponsorship, Partnership, Broadcasting
A. For the avoidance of doubt, this section means that the Host, Venue, and any third parties may not represent themselves as a sponsor or partner of the Event or of USAG without USAG’s prior written approval, which USAG may grant or withhold in its sole discretion. Host shall indemnify and hold USAG harmless for any breach of this section.

B. Host may create a program for sponsorship/partnership of the Event. Host agrees to conform to the partnership guidelines indicated in Appendix B. In no case will the Host be allowed to sell a "title" or "presenting" sponsorship or partnership for the Event without prior approval from USA Gymnastics. This program must be submitted in advance to USA Gymnastics for review and approval, and this submission must include 1) a list of sponsor/partner categories, including benefits received, and fees charged for each category, and 2) a list by industry and/or company name of prospective sponsors/partners the Host intends to contact.

C. Host agrees that it will not enter into negotiations with any potential sponsor or partner prior to the time it has obtained USA Gymnastics approval of both its partnership program and the potential partner. USA Gymnastics will not unreasonably withhold its approval of the program or a prospect, but the Host recognizes that potential conflict with United States Olympic Paralympic Committee or USA Gymnastics partners, suppliers, and broadcast regulations may:
1. limit the benefits the Host may offer prospective sponsors or partners,
2. require that a United States Olympic Paralympic Committee or USA Gymnastics partner be given first opportunity to purchase a particular partner category, or
3. eliminate a prospective sponsor or partner from further consideration.

D. USAG expressly reserves the right to provide benefits associated with the Event to any of its national partners. These benefits may include, but are not limited to, site signage, identification on athlete or volunteer uniforms, program advertisements, on-site hospitality, Event tickets, inclusion of the partner's name in the Event name and other forms of public recognition. USAG shall provide such benefits or reimburse the Host if USAG requests that the Host provide such benefits, for any expenses incurred by the Host in association with the provision of such benefits to USAG's national partners.

E. Host recognizes that there will be a certain number of sponsorship/partnership categories that will be exclusive. USAG reserves the right to approve or refuse any companies and/or product categories to whom the Host may sell a local sponsorship/partnership, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld. Any agreements executed without USA Gymnastics approval shall be null and void.

F. The video, television and broadband broadcast rights to the Event are the exclusive property of USA Gymnastics.

G. To indemnify fully and save harmless USA Gymnastics, its officers, agents and employees of and from any and all claims, demands and causes of action, including cost of attorney’s fees arising out of anything done or purported to have been done by the Host or any of its agents.

V. EVENT AND NON-EVENT MERCHANDISE

The above companies have the exclusive rights to their respective categories. USA Gymnastics partners are subject to change.
On a local level, you must give the local company representative the “right of first refusal” on all partnership packages. In the event that one of our national partners declines to be involved on the local level, the Host may approach a competing company with a “Patron Package”.

A “Patron Package” allows the business to support the event on a local level and is restricted to tickets, hospitality and limited event exposure. The elements that can be included in a “Patron Package” are:

- Program advertising
- Tickets
- VIP Hospitality / pre and post event
- Public Address announcements
- Concourse sampling / booth space (with the exception of gymnastics apparel)

NOTE: In all advertising and PA announcements, the local company has to be identified as a Patron.

You may not include the following in your “Patron Package”:

- Banner placements in the arena or competition area
- Create promotions that tie the event to the competitive companies
- Corporate logo placement that creates an identity with the event logo
- Named as a “Sponsor” or “Partner” or placed in a category (i.e. “Official _______ ”)

At no time will USA Gymnastics approve a partnership with competitors of the above listed companies. Companies representing categories not listed above may be approached for partnership.
