Policy

• All Member Clubs must permit parents and guardians access to training sessions.
• Access may include sitting areas, in person viewing options, closed-circuit broadcast or similar methods of viewing.
• Each training session must be accessible to at least a portion of the Member Club’s parents and guardians. This includes parents of all aspect of the gym’s athletes.

Simply put, all interactions with athletes MUST be able to be observed and interrupted by another person.
Managing Distractions

• Member Clubs may set parameters for appropriate viewing behavior
• Member Clubs may not prohibit a specific a parent or guardian from physical access without fair notice and warning
• The Member Club must provide a reasonable alternative for any parent or guardian who has been excluded from practice due to disruptive behavior

Documentation Matters!

Trends Seen in Safe Sport Reports

• Parent Viewing Areas
  - Blind Spots
  - Space/Size
  - Viewing Distance

• Parent Viewing Schedules

• Poor Club to Parent Communication and nonexistent documentation

• Resistance by Clubs or Coaches when parents raise a concern

• Miscommunication and misunderstanding of medical emergencies when parents are absent from training sessions

• Misunderstanding of a situation due to athlete age and maturity level
