USA Gymnastics National Team Program Manual

The USA Gymnastics National Team Program Manual (“Manual”) the responsibilities of participants while engaged in National Team activities (competitions, training camps, exhibitions, among others). This manual identifies the group of individuals who have an official role at a National Team activity and includes personal coaches, athletes, high performance leaders, head coaches, team leaders/heads of delegation, medical staff, athlete representatives, judges, staff and/or chaperones. Frequently, an individual may fulfill more than one role, particularly during international competitions. Each person is responsible for knowing and adhering to the responsibilities for every position in which they have the honor to serve. This manual is intended to help prepare members of the team to represent our sport and our country honorably and respectfully at the highest level.

It is important to reaffirm our collective commitment to ensure that the safety, health, and well-being of our athletes comes before all else. The principles outlined are designed to not only remind National Team members and staff of the special responsibility we carry when representing the United States, but also to respect our teammates and competitors, uphold the integrity of the sport and honor the worldwide gymnastics community. USA Gymnastics is committed to building a positive culture that supports our athletes in pursuing their gymnastics dreams in a safe environment.

General Responsibilities

The responsibilities outlined in this manual are essential to function effectively as a team and achieve team goals. Everyone included in a USA Gymnastics delegation is compelled to conduct in a professional manner for the duration of the event or activity. Our mission is to represent our country, our sport and ourselves at the highest level possible, while holding true to our core values and priorities, which include athlete safety, well-being, integrity, and respect. National Team events should be considered both an honor and a responsibility.

Every participant in a National Team activity is expected to:

- Promote a positive, safe and healthy environment;
- Be supportive of the team effort and all team members;
- Abide by the USA Gymnastics Safe Sport Policy and Code of Ethical Conduct, including reporting requirements;
- Abide by the competition rules; and,
- Be respectful of environment.

Please understand that adherence to this manual is a requirement for all delegation members. Should any delegation member be dismissed because of non-compliance, may lose benefits associated with National Team membership.

Athletes

USA Gymnastics is committed to supporting the efforts of its athletes in achieving their athletic goals while keeping their safety and overall well-being as the priority. Athletes, as part of the National Team, must assume the following responsibilities, all of which are intended to promote athletic success in a safe environment.

- Adhere to the daily schedule of activities.
- Attend all training sessions, team meals and team meetings.
- Be on time and in proper attire for all team functions.
- Communicate and act in a respectful manner with all delegation members, support staff and event host/host country.
- Understand that all athletes will be under the direction of the high-performance staff and/or the head coach at camps or events. Each personal coach is in attendance as a member of the support team and to assist with athlete's individual training.
- Immediately report concerns about health, safety, training environment, or any other factor that detracts from a positive training experience or competitive success to medical staff, athlete representative, coach, or other appropriate staff member.
- Immediately report all new injuries, even minor ones, to medical staff for evaluation.
- Condition safely and properly, and follow-up with physical therapy, as needed and recommended by medical staff.
- Get adequate rest.
- The use of non-prescribed drugs is prohibited.
- Team members shall not drink any alcoholic beverage until the competition is over for all athletes in the delegation. At that time, team members who are of U.S. legal drinking age may drink responsibly, so long as they are not visibly impaired and comply with local drinking laws. Athletes are reminded that until the delegation has returned home, they are still representing the United States and are obligated to conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times. Failure to abide by these prohibitions may result in disciplinary action for the entire delegation. The use of alcohol by athletes under the age of 21 is strictly prohibited.
- The use of nicotine or nicotine-containing products including vaping products of any kind is strongly discouraged and strictly prohibited for anyone under the age of 21.
- Team members must abide by both U.S. and local law, including age restricted activities.
- Be responsible for all personal and necessary items for training and competition (i.e., extra copy of music, grips, apparatus, among other items).
- Have all necessary apparel with you, in good condition and properly fitted.
- Know and execute any National Team warm-up routines at a high level, if applicable.
- Remain a part of the team and adhere to the team schedule until all individual and team competitions are completed even if you are done competing.
- Abstain from sharing confidential information about another athlete or coaching staff, photos or comments from training camps or competitions to the public via social media, email, or other means of communications. Confidential information includes selection information, medical information including injuries, athlete performance information, skill or routine video, etc.
