The RPC received the following recommendation from the IEC regarding a change in the size of the National Team:

Together with the Rhythmic Program Committee Chair, the IEC discussed the size and structure of the National Team following the 2018 National Qualifier. In light of continuing progress in athlete development, the members above recommend collectively to the Rhythmic Program Committee the following update to the individual National Team size: 12 juniors; 10 seniors.

The recommendation was PASSED by the RPC and will come into effect for the 2018 USA Gymnastics Championships.
