III. Zone Clinics and Competition

The committee discussed the current situation with the Zone Clinics and Compulsory Competitions and designed a new system of compulsory qualification opportunities.

Beginning January 2013 Elite Zones are eliminated. Athletes may obtain a compulsory qualifying score at all National Qualifiers (WOGA – February, Orlando – March, Parkettes – June and Training Center – July.). In addition, compulsory competitions will be conducted at selected Developmental Training Camp(s). Compulsory competitions may also be hosted by individual clubs if approved in advance by the IEC.

USA is allowed 4 slots to the FIG Intercontinental Judges Course. After receiving a decline from Pat Panichas the following judges were invited to represent the country. Cheryl Hamilton, Tatiana Perskaia, Kristie Phillips-Banister and Chelle Marcella. (This vote was concluded by conference call and email).
