STATE MANDATED AED LAWS

Please note: this is a list of AED laws as mandated by state legislation, it is important to note that many counties and cities also have AED laws, for more information on your city or county AED laws please contact Danny Howard at (954) 952-7470 or danny@onebeatcpr.com

Alabama – Public schools serving grades K-12

Alaska – No state mandates

Arizona – State building built after 2002 or having undergone major construction since act passed in 2002

Arkansas – Schools and health spas

California – Health studios, fitness centers, golf courses, amusement parks

Colorado – No state mandates

Connecticut – All schools, public buildings, higher education athletic departments, all licensed dialysis facilities, outpatient surgical facilities, residential care homes and assisted living service agencies

Delaware – No state mandates

Florida – All public high schools offering athletics, dentist offices, assisted living facilities with 17 or more beds

Georgia – All public high schools

Hawaii – All public and private schools, including colleges, other degree granting institutes

Idaho – No state mandates

Illinois – Dental offices that administer anesthesia or sedation; fitness facilities

Indiana – Health clubs

Iowa – No state mandates

Kansas – No state mandates

Kentucky – Public and private schools and their athletic events, dentist offices
STATE MANDATED AED LAWS

Please note: this is a list of AED laws as mandated by state legislation, it is important to note that many counties and cities also have AED laws, for more information on your city or county AED laws please contact Danny Howard at (954) 952-7470 or danny@onebeatcpr.com

Louisiana – Any institution of higher education that competes in intercollegiate athletics, high schools participating in interscholastic athletics

Maine – Schools serving grades K-12 and at school sponsored athletic events

Maryland – County or municipality owned and operated swimming pools, physical therapy offices, courthouses, health clubs, schools and school sponsored athletic events, nursing homes, assisted living facilities

Massachusetts – All public schools, senior housing facilities, health and wellness facilities, health clubs

Michigan – State parks, life support vehicles, health clubs

Minnesota – No state mandates

Mississippi – No state mandates

Missouri – No state mandates

Montana – No state mandates

Nebraska – No state mandates

Nevada – Public schools

New Hampshire – No state mandates

New Jersey – All public and private K-12 schools, assisted living facilities, health clubs, nursing homes

New Mexico – No state mandates

New York – Health clubs, dental facilities, swimming facilities, places of public assembly, building of the state, schools

North Carolina – Government building

North Dakota – Public and private schools
STATE MANDATED AED LAWS

Please note: this is a list of AED laws as mandated by state legislation, it is important to note that many counties and cities also have AED laws, for more information on your city or county AED laws please contact Danny Howard at (954) 952-7470 or danny@onebeatcpr.com

Ohio – No state mandates

Oklahoma – High school athletic events and schools

Oregon – Public and private schools, colleges and schools of higher education, health clubs, businesses with 50,000 or more square feet and at least 25 people congregating per day

Pennsylvania – Health clubs and hotels

Rhode Island – Health clubs, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, public swimming pools, and every city, town, college campus and judicial office in the state

South Carolina – High schools

South Dakota – No state mandates

Tennessee – Public schools

Texas – All schools, including charter schools, nursing homes, and related facilities

Utah – No state mandates

Vermont – No state mandates

Virginia – No state mandates

Washington – No state mandates

West Virginia – Dentist offices

Wisconsin – Child care residence

Wyoming – No state mandates